SHERMAN.

QENERAL SLOCUM'S BATTLES.

The Army Fighting and Marching for a Base.

The Herald Special Account of How it Was Gallantly and Gloriously Done.

Full Report of the Brilliant Affair at Averasboro.

Splendid Fighting of Joe Hocker's Old Corps.

The Enemy Driven and the Route to Goldsboro Opened.

Detailed Report of the Desperate Battle at Bentonsville.

The Enemy Driven in Confusion from the Field.

eral Sherman Announces the Culmination of the Campaign in a Glorious Success.

ERMAN'S CONGRATULATORY ORDER.

Special Field Orders-No. 35.

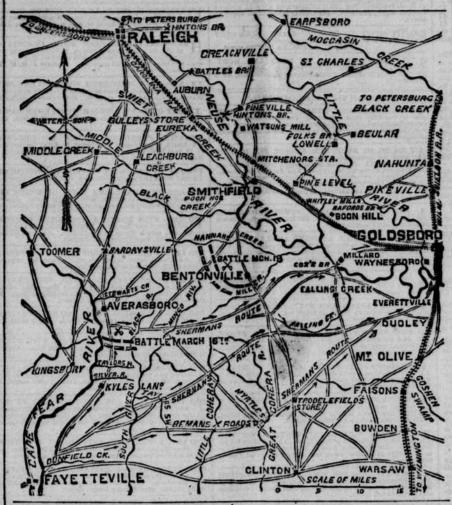

MARCHING FOR A BASE.

to the cosm. By careful numing at the federal arsenal pap for a long series of years it partly recovered, only to be stricken more heavily by the hand of the mother who nursed it. The pap has been rudely withdrawn, and the aged babe will probably die in the weaning process. Of the arsenal not one stone-remains upon another. Of the mills, where corn was ground to feed, and raiment apun to clothe the operatives at the arsenal, none are left. The tanneries are destroyed, and the whole mechanical industry of the place is a ruin. The crowd of citizens, white and black, who blocked up Pearson strest, damoring for river tanneroriation out.

we with the command and are not such as the control of the control

SLOCUM'S

Line of Sherman's March from Fayetteville to His New Base-Scene of the Battles of Averasboro and Bentonsville.

THE CASUALTIES.

side our line worse. Lain in he athermosh bleste sowning spoused out that. Due to condend of Warth with the spouse of the state of the